

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY
—
Neighbourhood
Research Hub

2022 NGO RESEARCHERS' FORUM 2022

Call Out for NGO PRESENTATIONS on -

Thursday 28th April 2022

10:00 -11:30 am via Zoom meeting

Following the success of our online planning workshop in March, the NGO Researchers Forum is pleased to announce the call out for the first of four forums in 2022.

You are invited to submit a presentation proposal on:

NGO EXPERIENCES WITH CO-DESIGN IN RESEARCH & PRACTICE

In no more than 250 words, please send a description of the project/ case study, how you did it (key methods), outcomes and what you have learned. Some examples might be around:

- co-designing a program of services with your service users;
- co-designing a research project;
- or co-designing a program of events with other stakeholders.

Please email your presentation description ideally by Friday 1st April to (email withheld).

Meeting objective and format

On 28 April, we're aiming for three presentations, with 10-12 minutes allocated per presentation.

As planned, the forum will be split into two parts:

- Part 1. Panel of presentations
- Part 2. Questions, discussion and networking

Click to RSVP NOW and be on the forum mail list. Previous registrants (9 March RSVPs) need not register again. The NGO Researchers Forum is a proud initiative of, and partnership between, NCOSS and The University of Sydney. Please visit the University of Sydney Neighbourhood Research Hub page.